“Try Us On” Sessions

IHSE invites all prospective students, accepted students, parents, teachers and guidance counselors interested in learning about the child and youth related programs at the Institute to attend an upcoming “Try us On”. This is a great chance to mix and mingle with staff, faculty and students. Tours of classrooms and library will be provided. Student and teacher questions will be answered. Pre-registration is preferred. Classes and groups are welcome but please email wulfl@inst-hse.ca so we know you’re coming.

Additional Information

Professional Development - Part-time: Students who have not been accepted into a certificate or diploma program are considered Professional Development students and must pay the applicable PD tuition rate at time of registration for each course. Please contact IHSE for applicable fee.

The Dr. Jane Norman Scholarships (Values $500 - $1000)

Entrance Scholarships: All high school applicants to full-time programs with an average of 80% or above will be automatically considered for scholarship.

Part-time Study Scholarships: Any students enrolled in a part-time program can apply for the scholarship upon completion of 50% of their program.

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition

The Institute recognizes that adults have significant relevant prior learning experiences. The PLAR process allows students to receive credit for college level learning that has been gained outside a traditional classroom (through minimum five years relevant work experience, life experience, volunteering, self-study, work-related courses etc.). Interested applicants should contact IHSE for a PLAR Information Brochure.

Housing Options

The Nova Scotia Community College-Truro Campus residence has a limited number of double and single rooms available for Institute students. The NSCC residence is located less than one kilometer from the Institute campus, at 36 Arthur Street. Accepted students wishing to apply for a room in residence should contact the NSCC Coordinator of Residence at (902) 893-5378 or IHSE at (902) 893-3342 to obtain an application. Students should complete that application and forward it, along with applicable fees, to the NSCC as soon as possible.

IHSE also compiles an Off Campus Housing list each spring and this can be found at www.inst-hse.ca, or by calling (902) 893-3342 or by e-mailing admin@inst-hse.ca
