Emergent Workshops Series

Jane MacKenzie, Director of the Dr. Jane Norman Child Study Centre, recently returned from an exciting study tour experience in Reggio Emilia, Italy. Her center has been practicing and loving emergent programming for several years. Jane has many ideas, lived experiences and practical suggestions on how others can create emergent programs. The series will consist of once a month evening workshop and support session, as well as, some on-site consultation to participating centres.

Truro, The first Tuesday of every month - October to June, 6 - 9 pm, Cost: $400.00

Working with Terrific Toddlers

Many people find these little bundles of energy and personality can sometimes be challenging. The presenter has years of experience as an early educator and will share her strategies on how we can modify our environments and interactions to put the terrific in toddler. Presenter: LeaAnne Joudrie, Early Childhood Educator and Instructor

Sydney, Sept. 26, 9- 12 / Antigonish, Oct. 10, 9- 12 / Truro Nov. 17, 6-9 / Bridgewater, May 7, 9-12. Cost $40.00

Behaviour: Exploring a Sensory Perspective

Children's behaviour in a very real way, is a primary means to communication. The presenter will explore with participants how a child's ability to respond to sensory information affects his/her behaviour in positive, or sometimes, concerning ways. She will provide many suggestions on how, as adults, we can change the level of stimulation to alter behaviour, and to better support children's comfort, learning and development. Presenter: Jackie Allen, Early Interventionist and Instructor

Truro, September 29, 6 - 9 pm / Bridgewater, October 10, 9 -12 / Sydney, May 7, 9 - 12 / Antigonish, June 11, 9 - 12. Cost $40.00
